

“Brian, I very much wish to thank you for your holistic coaching approach to triathlons and life in general, as it has enabled me to positively manage and come through some very challenging times during the past year or two and I know it will continue to stand me in good stead for the future”.

.....Annette Brunton – Feb. 2008